Cindy Right. Well, when you get off the bus in the High Street, turn <sup>2</sup> on the left/left. Then go <sup>3</sup> along/past the High Street until you see a pub. <sup>4</sup> Take/Turn right at the pub. Go <sup>5</sup> under/between the railway bridge and go <sup>6</sup> straight/down on. Take the second <sup>7</sup> left/on the left and my house is <sup>8</sup> on the right/right after about a hundred metres. It's <sup>9</sup> opposite/in front a small supermarket.

Sue Right. I think I've got that.

Hi Mick

It's great that you're coming to stay next weekend! This is how you get to my house. <sup>1</sup> Catch the train to Queen's Cross station. (<sup>2</sup> _____ anything on the train because my mum's making a big dinner for us.) <sup>3</sup> _____ the station and <sup>4</sup> _____ left. Then <sup>5</sup> _____ straight down Marchmont Road and <sup>6</sup> _____ the third left - that's Carlton Drive. My house is on the right, number 4. <sup>7</sup> _____ some money and we can go into town on Saturday. <sup>8</sup> _____ your tennis racket because there's a sports centre near our house. See you on Friday evening. Martin
