f.	...unless it rains.
c.	...unless they are with an adult.
h.	...unless you are over 65 years old.
d.	...unless they talk to him first.
e.	...unless they give me a discount.

Exercise 2: Correct or wrong?

Read the sentences and decide whether they are correct or wrong, either in grammar or meaning.

1. I don't watch TV unless the news is on.

a. Correct - Yes - well done!

b. Wrong – No - this sentence is correct in grammar and meaning.

2. We can sit near the front unless you don't want to sit at the back.

a. Correct - No – this sentence does not make sense. Delete 'don't'.

b. Wrong - Yes – this sentence does not make sense. Delete 'don't'.

3. You might put on weight unless you eat fatty food.

a. Correct - No – the meaning is wrong. 'You might put on weight if you eat fatty food' is better.

b. Wrong - Yes – the meaning is wrong. 'You might put on weight if you eat fatty food' is better.

4. Unless you will wear a thick coat, you will get very cold.

a. Correct – No – the tense in the 'Unless' part of the sentence should be present: 'Unless you wear a thick coat...'

b. Wrong – Yes – the tense in the 'Unless' part of the sentence should be present: 'Unless you wear a thick coat...'

5. Unless they are showing an action film, we could go to the movies tomorrow afternoon.

a. Correct - Yes - well done!

b. Wrong – No - this sentence is correct in grammar and meaning.

6. You can borrow my car unless you ask me first.

a. Correct – No – it makes better sense to say: 'You can't borrow my car unless you ask me first'.

b. Wrong – Yes – it makes better sense to say: 'You can't borrow my car unless you ask me first'.
